Numb. 266.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

THURSDAY March 8, 1739.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 15.

THE 10th Inſtant, the Count de St. Severin, Ambaſſador from the Moſt Chriſtian King, ſigned with the Miniſters of this Court a new Subſidy Treaty, the chief Articles of which are, That his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty obliges himſelf to pay to the Crown of Sweden, during ten Years together, a Subſidy of 900,000 Livres per Annum, (about 40,900 l. Sterling) payable in three Terms; and that the Crown of Sweden, on her Part, promiſes not to make any Treaty, during the ſaid ten Years, with any Power whatever, without the Knowledge and Conſent of France

Vienna, Nov. 22. We are aſſured that the Treaty of Peace between this Court and that of France, which has been ſo long talk'd of, was ſigned 18th Inſtant by the Emperor's Miniſters and the Marquis de Mirepoix the French Embaſſador. We are perſuaded that the King of Sardinia will accede to it forthwith, but it is not yet known how this Matter ſtands in regard to Spain: However we flatter ourſelves that the Negociation on the Tapis concerning the Catholick Court's Acceſſion will meet with the wiſh'd for Succeſs, and the Peace ſoon be publiſh'd with the uſual Formalities.

As to a Peace with the Porte, it ſeems to be at a greater Diſtance than ever, becauſe the Infidels ſtill inſiſt upon making the Treaty of Carlowitz the Baſis of the Negociation; wherefore we are making all the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for a third Campaign, which we flatter ourſelves will be a more vigorous one than the former. We reckon that the Expences Extraordinary amount to 11,000,000 Florins, ſix of which are already found, and we don't doubt but the reſt will be ſoon raiſed.

Letter from Triers, Nov. 28.

We hear that a Body of 28,000 French Troops have received Orders to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march; but it is not ſaid whither. We have Advice from Luxemburg, that Proviſions are carried in there every Day; that the Garriſon works Night and Day upon the Fortifications, in order to put the Town in a good Condition of Defence; and that they don't think any Troops will be draughted from thence to reinforce the Imperial Army in Hungary, as was reported.

Extract of a Letter from Madrid, Nov. 8.

A few Days ago Mr. Keene, the Britiſh Miniſter, had a Conference with the Marquis de la Quadra, Secretary of State, occaſioned by a Courier he receiv'd from London, whoſe Diſpatches related to the Payment of the Sum which the King is diſpoſed to grant to the Engliſh Merchants by Way of Indemnification for their Loſſes. This Article meets with ſome Difficulty; becauſe his Majeſty would have this Payment made in the Weſt-Indies, and the Court of Great Britain demands that the Money be paid in London. ——This Money ought to be paid in London; for if paid in the Weſt Indies, the SPANISH GUARDA COSTAS will probably ſeize the Ship that has it on board, on Pretence of its carrying contraband Goods.

HAGUE, Dec. 6.

It does not appear that the Affair of Curaſſo and the Dutch contraband Trade in the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies is in ſo fair a Way of Accomodation, as is generally believed. The Marquis de St. Gilles, Ambaſſador from Spain at this Court, has let drop ſome Words, intimating his Doubts, whether his moſt Catholick Majeſty will be ſatisfied with the Anſwer the States have made to his Memorial, and which he ſent by a ſpecial Meſſenger to Madrid. It is even rumour'd that that Memorial will be back'd with a ſecond, conceived in yet ſtronger Terms. France is at the Bottom of all theſe Jealouſies and Heats, which ſubſiſt between the two Powers in a Train of Accommodation, ſhe is redoubling her Efforts by the ſame Canal of Spain, to perplex and embarraſs the other. In troubled Waters there is always ſomething to be gained

It muſt nevertheleſs be owned, that there ſeems to be ſome Ground of Complaint on the Part of Spain. By a written Liſt which is ſecretly handed about, it appears, that for theſe ſeveral Years paſt, there has entered into the Ports of the Maritime Provinces of this Republick, fourteen or fifteen Sail from the Iſland of Curaſſo alone, without reckoning thoſe from the neighbouring Iſlands and Ports of the Spaniſh Indies. It will perhaps be no eaſy Matter for the Miniſtry to gainſay, or prove this Account to be ſpurious. According to the Annual Liſt of Veſſels enter'd inwards, which is publiſhed at Amſterdam, it appears that one Year with another, 12 from the above mentioned Iſland have entered into the Texel every Year: And by the printed Liſt for laſt Year, which I have before me, 11 entered the Port of Amſterdam alone. The Spaniards affirm, that it is not worth while for any Dutch Veſſel, or any other Veſſel, to trade to Curaſſo in a fair Way; the valuable Commodities of that Part, as of all the Spaniſh Weſt Indies, being the Sole Property of the Crown and Subjects of Spain

LONDON, Dec 16.

By Letters from Amſterdam, we are adviſed, that the Negociation of the Court of Vienna for borrowing ſome Millions of Florins, unqueſtionably advances. When the Propoſition was brought upon the Carpet in the Aſſembly of the States of Holland, it occaſioned warm Debates among them, and the Party which were againſt the Propoſition, ſeem'd, determined to give their Conſent to it, provided that the Emperor would, for the Security of the Repayment of that Part of the Loan which ſhould be advanced him by the Subjects of the Republick, mortgage to it the Towns of Ruremonde and Dendermonde; which it's believed, will be complied with, becauſe Count d'Uhlefeldt ſeems to approve of the Project.

From Holland we hear that the Dutch are puſhing with the utmoſt Expedition the Equipment of their Squadron of Fourteen Men of War lately ordered into Commiſſion.

By a private Letter from a Gentleman at Kingſton in Jamaica, to his Correſpondent in Briſtol, we learn, that the Captain of the Man of War who took the Spaniſh Regiſter gifter Ship had been obliged by the Governor said of Island, to conduct her back into the same Latitude where he found her.

By Letters from Amsterdam we learn, that the Marquis de St. Giles stirs very much to obtain an Answer to his late menacing Memorial, wherein he, in the Name of his Catholick Majesty, demands a full and perfect Satisfaction for the Insults and Injuries, committed by the Republick on some Spanish Ships. The States of Holland, who still continue their Assembly, will, before it's breaking up, make a Resolution upon this Memorial, to be carried to the Generality, in order to be there deliberated upon by the States General. Less Diligence is used in preparing an Answer to the above Memorial, to speedily as the Spanish Ambassador seems to desire, because the Preliminary Convention between Great Britain and Spain is not yet fully concluded, which their High Mightinesses look upon as a Circumstance greatly in their favour, being now it's said, determin'd, if the Negociations for Peace between those two Crowns should prove unsuccessful, to make theirs a common Cause with Great-Britain, and go heartily into the Measures of that Crown.—The other Day the Hague and Amsterdam Letter Writers told us every Thing was fully settled and concluded between Spain and Great-Britain; but now they tell us the Preliminary Convention is not yet fully concluded; which are we to believe

A Habeas Corpus is granted for removing a certain Baronet lately appointed Governor of one of the Leeward Islands, (whose Name some time past made a Noise in the World) from Glocester Goal to the Fleet Prison.

CHARLES-TOWN, March 6.

On Sunday last was found at Mr. John Cockfield's Landing, the Body of a Person unknown, who, it is believed, was drowned in attempting to swim over Ashley-River-Ferry; the lower part of his Face seems to be eaten away, and the upper covered with his Cap over his Eyes; he appeared pretty well dressed, having on a good brown Coat, white Waistcoat, Buck-skin Breeches, white Stockings a pair of new Shoes or Pumps, with Silver Buttons in his sleeves, and a pair of Spurs.

On the 15th of January last, Mark Anderson Master of the Scooner Betty was chased out of the Bay of Honduras by a Spanish Sloop, with Ten Carriage Guns, (which had been taken from an English Merchant belonging to Boston, on board of which were Zachariah Williams as Merchant, and John Guyn Master) and in the following Night got clear; but was drove back on the 18th by Distress of Weather to the Island of Bonacho, under the West End whereof lay the aforesaid Sloop with Fifty Men on board, who took the Scooner, her Sails having been torn to Pieces by the Violence of the Wind, then plundered her of her Provisions, Instruments and all other Necessaries, putting the Master and his People on Shore, after which they gave the Scooner to John Guyn in lieu of his Sloop they were then on board; but the said Anderson having his Register made a Demand of the said Scooner, and with some Difficulty recovered her, when he fitted her out in the best Manner he could, and was drove into this Place by Distress, his People having lived 22 Days on two Ounces of Meat per Day, and had no Provision when they entered into this Port. The said Sloop attempted to board a Ship entring into the Bay, but did no farther Damage than the killing of a Man on the main Yard, the Ship getting clear. The Spaniards informed the said Anderson that there had been two Spanish Sloops more with Fifty Men each, but they had great Reason to imagine they were both lost.
